

“Optimum Healthcare IT won a highly competitive bid process for our Epic planning, project management, implementation, training and Go-Live support. They beat out ten other Epic implementation vendors in the process. Their breadth of experience at a fair price point put them head and shoulders above the competition. It gives me comfort to know I have one partner that can fill all our needs with proven processes, talented people at the right price. A year later, I can confidently say that UC Irvine Health made the right decision.”

Chuck Podesta, CIO – UC IRVINE HEALTH
